NO REDEEMING SOCIAL VALUE

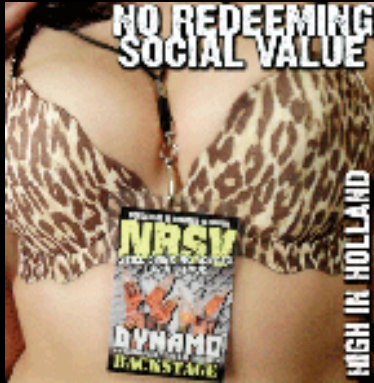

NYC HARDCORE LEGEND TO RELEASE 'HIGH IN HOLLAND'

No Redeeming Social Value to release live CD this September

QUEENS, NY – Legendary NYC hardcore punk outfit, No Redeeming Social Value, is proud to announce a September 7th release date for High In Holland, a 19-song beer-drinking romp recorded at the Dynamo in Eindhoven, Holland, to be released on Dead City Records.

The professionally captured, High In Holland, was recorded on October 18, 2007 on the “Still Drinking Across Europe” tour, and contains rare live recordings with some different versions of classic No Redeeming Social Value songs. High In Holland features a limited edition full color booklet filled with photos and all of the words spoken (and lyrics), as well as an enhanced CD featuring unreleased videos.

"We wanted to give the fans a taste of a No Redeeming Social Value show and what better way then to go to a place where it is easy for us to do what we do best - Holland!!!! Sit back, grab a brew and immerse yourself in the N.R.S.V. experience."

No Redeeming Social Value was founded in Queens, New York City in the late 1980's, and was one of the key bands in the early 90's second coming of New York hardcore. They stood apart as the band you had to see to believe - beer drinking party animals with real talent playing real hardcore music.

Over the decades, No Redeeming Social Value has played shows alongside such bands as Sick Of It All, Vision Of Disorder, The Casualties, Agnostic Front, Hatebreed, Bad Brains, Murphys Law, Body Count, and countless others. They have also toured the entire USA, Japan, Canada, and Europe several times.

No Redeeming Social Value has made an indelible mark on the global hardcore scene with their intense live performances and their incredibly dynamic recordings. Their past releases on Dead City, Striving or Togetherness, Triple Crown, Fuzzy Bunny Media, and Scars Productions have sold over 100,000 total units, earning them respect and credibility throughout the hardcore, punk, and metal scenes. The band was featured prominently in the groundbreaking and award winning N.Y.H.C. Documentary film, and their music has appeared in the successful video game, Backyard Wrestling 2.

No Redeeming Social Value has played, and will continue to play High profile shows in support of High In Holland.
